----- DUTIES AND AUTHORITIES OF THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS -----

----- ARTICLE 15 -----

1. The Board of Commissioners shall supervise the policies of the Board of Directors in managing the Company and shall give advice to the Board of Directors.
2. The members of the Board of Commissioners, either jointly or individually, shall at any time during working hours be entitled to enter the buildings and premises or other places used or controlled by the Company, and shall be entitled to examine the books, documentary evidence and inventory of goods, to examine and verify the state of the cash for verification purposes and other securities, and to be informed of all actions taken by the Board of Directors.
3. The members of the Board of Commissioners shall be entitled to request explanations on all matters raised with the members of the Board of Directors, and the members of the Board of Directors shall be obliged to give explanations on all matters raised by the members of the Board of Commissioners.
4. The Board of Commissioners, by majority vote, may at any time suspend one or more members of the Board of Directors if they act contrary to the Articles of Association of the Company or neglect their obligations, or if there are compelling reasons for the Company.

-The suspension referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article shall be notified in writing to the person concerned, together with the reasons giving rise to such action.

-Within 30 (thirty) days after such suspension, the Board of Commissioners shall be obliged to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, which shall decide whether the member of the Board of Directors concerned is to be permanently dismissed or reinstated to their position, and the suspended member of the Board of Directors shall be given the opportunity to attend and defend themselves.

-This Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be chaired by the President Commissioner, and if they are absent, the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be chaired by another member of the Board of Commissioners, and if no member of the Board of Commissioners is present, the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be chaired by a person elected by and from among those present at the said Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.
6. In the event that the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders is not held within 30 (thirty) days after such suspension, the suspension shall be null and void by operation of law, and the person concerned shall be entitled to resume their original position.

-If all members of the Board of Directors are suspended and the Company has no member of the Board of Directors whatsoever, the members of the Board of Commissioners shall be obliged to manage the Company temporarily.

-In such a case, the Board of Commissioners shall be entitled to grant temporary powers to one or more persons from among themselves on their joint responsibility.
8. In the event that there is only one member of the Board of Commissioners, all duties and authorities granted to the President Commissioner or the members of the Board of Commissioners in these articles of association shall also apply to them.

9. In the event that, for any reason whatsoever, the Company has no member of the Board of Commissioners whatsoever, then within no later than 30 (thirty) days after the vacancy occurs, an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held to appoint new members of the Board of Commissioners.

----- MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS -----

----- ARTICLE 17 -----

1. The Board of Directors shall submit a work plan, which shall also contain the annual budget of the Company, to the Board of Commissioners for the approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders, before the financial year commences.
2. The work plan referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be submitted no later than 30 (thirty) days before the commencement of the forthcoming financial year.
3. -The Financial Year of the Company shall run from the 1st (first) of January up to and including the 31st (thirty-first) of December of the same year.

-At the end of the month of December of each year, the books of the Company shall be closed.

-For the first time, the books of the Company shall commence on the date of this deed and shall be closed on the 31st (thirty-first) of December.

4. The Board of Directors shall prepare the Annual Report in accordance with the provisions of the prevailing laws and regulations, signed by all members of the Board of Directors and all members of the Board of Commissioners, to be submitted to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. This Annual Report shall be made available at the office of the Company for inspection by the Shareholders no later than 14 (fourteen) days before the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.
5. The Annual Report referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article shall contain at least:
- a. the annual accounts, consisting of the balance sheet as at the end of the past financial year and the profit and loss account for the financial year concerned, together with the explanatory notes to such documents;
 - b. a report on the condition and course of business of the Company and the results achieved;
 - c. the principal activities of the Company and any changes during the financial year;
 - d. details of problems arising during the financial year which affected the activities of the Company;
 - e. the salaries and other allowances of the members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Commissioners.
6. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall give its decision on the acceptance of the Annual Report and the ratification of the annual accounts after they have been examined by a public accountant appointed by the Board of Directors with the written approval of the Board of Commissioners.

----- APPROPRIATION OF PROFIT, DISTRIBUTION OF INTERIM DIVIDENDS -

----- AND DISTRIBUTION OF DIVIDENDS -----

----- ARTICLE 18 -----

1. The net profit of the Company in a financial year, as stated in the balance sheet and profit and loss account ratified by the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders and constituting a positive profit balance, shall be distributed in the manner of appropriation determined by the said Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.
2. The net profit referred to in paragraph 1 of this article shall be distributed for reserves, dividends and other purposes, the respective percentages of which shall be determined each year by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. If the profit and loss account in a financial year shows a loss which cannot be covered by the reserve fund, such loss shall remain recorded and carried in the profit and loss account, and in the subsequent financial years the Company shall be deemed not to have earned any profit for as long as the loss recorded and carried in the profit and loss account has not been fully covered, without prejudice to the provisions of the prevailing laws and regulations.
4. -Dividends not claimed within 5 (five) years after they have been made available for payment shall no longer be paid and shall be placed in a reserve fund specifically designated for that purpose.

-Dividends in such special reserve fund may be claimed by the entitled Shareholders before the lapse of a period of 10 (ten) years, by submitting evidence of their entitlement to such dividends acceptable to the Board of Directors of the Company.

-Dividends not claimed after the lapse of such period shall become the property of the Company.
5. The Company may distribute interim dividends before the financial year of the Company is closed, based on a resolution of the Board of Directors after obtaining the approval of the Board of Commissioners, without prejudice to the provisions of the prevailing laws and regulations.

----- USE OF RESERVES -----

----- ARTICLE 19 -----

1. The portion of profit set aside for the reserve fund shall be determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders with due observance of the provisions of the prevailing laws and regulations.

2. The setting aside of net profit for reserves shall be made until it reaches 20% (twenty percent) of the total issued and paid-up capital, and may only be used to cover losses not met by other reserves.
3. If the amount of the reserves has exceeded 20% (twenty percent), the General Meeting of Shareholders may decide that the excess amount be used for the purposes of the Company.
4. The reserves referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article which have not been used to cover losses, and the excess reserves referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article the use of which has not been determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders, shall be managed by the Board of Directors in an appropriate manner at the discretion of the Board of Directors, after obtaining the approval of the Board of Commissioners and with due observance of the provisions of the prevailing laws and regulations, so as to earn a profit.
